

(Sri J. NARAYANAPPA)

- (b) if so, the number of persons recruited directly and the number of persons drawn from other Departments ;
- (c) the period of probations fixed for them ;
- (d) whether they have been given their usual increments after the completion of this probationary period ;
- (e) if not, the reasons for the same ?

A.—Sri KADIDAL MANJAPPA (Minister for Revenue).—

- (a) Yes.
- (b) 50 Probationary Tahsildars were recruited and all of them were in-servicemen drawn from various Government Departments.
- (c) Two years.

(d) & (e) According to Rule 10 of the Rules of Probation no increment or pay beyond the pay prescribed for the period of probation may be drawn by the probationer, until he is confirmed. The question of confirmation of these probationary Tahsildars is under consideration of Government. Certain probationary Tahsildars who were officiating as Tahsildars prior to their selection and appointment as Probationary Tahsildars, have been allowed to draw their regular increments after completion of the probationary period.
